

April Children's Events @ Weston Library

T is for Toddle Time: Every Tues. and Thurs. at 10:30AM

Parents, Caregivers, Babies, and Toddlers; please join us every Tuesday and Thursday for music, movement, and creative story-times. This is a great way to foster early literacy. No registration needed.

Wiggle Giggle Wednesday for 3-5 Year Olds: Every Wed. at 3:30PM

Families and caregivers, please join us every Wednesday for singing, dancing, and stories geared for children ages 3 –5 years old. No registration required.

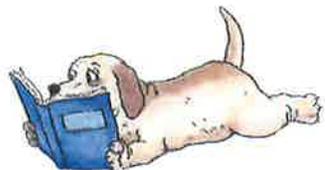

Recycling Through Literature for Grades K-2: Every Tues. at 3:30 & 4:45PM

School aged children from grades K-2, please join us every Tuesday for more sophisticated stories and a coordinating craft project, which promotes the use of recycled and natural items. No registration required.

Building With Literature for Grades 3-4: Every Thurs. at 3:45 PM

During these sessions we begin with a great story selected for more mature listeners from grades 3 & 4. We then build a coordinating piece of art work that complements the story. This session will meet weekly on Thursdays. New stories and creations will be featured each week to ensure creative learning and fun.

Reading to Rover: Apr. 9, 11AM-12PM

Weston Youth Services Director, Michelle Albright, will bring her ROAR (Ridgefield Operation Animal Rescue) certified therapy dog, Nellie, to the Weston Public Library! Stop in for a 15 minute reading session!

A Total Disconnect: Apr. 11, 2PM-4PM

Teens, Tweens and School-aged kids, join us for some unplugged fun. Accept a LEGO building challenge or bring a friend for fun with board games! Rally the troops, leave those devices at home and join us for a total disconnect!

Crazy 8s Club: Apr. 11, 4:30PM-5:30PM

Where Match Meets Mischief! Students in graded 2-5, join us for Glow-in-the-Dark Geometry, a session designed to help you have too much match fun. You will build geometric shapes with glow sticks, construct glow-in-the-dark pyramids, and much more. Space and supplies are limited to 15 students. To register, call the library at 203-222-2665.

Sciencetellers presents Dragons and Dreams: Apr. 13, 12PM

Join us as we learn about the changing states of matter through an interactive journey, where two brave villagers take a daring journey to free dragons and save an entire kingdom! The story is an explosive experience with dry ice, fog, bubbles, flying rockets and more. Reservations needed; please call 203-222-2665 to reserve your spot.

Teen Tech Time Challenge: Apr. 13, 6PM

Are you creative enough to accept our Teen Tech Challenge to create videos to highlight our latest books? To join in: bring your own device and use the app or program of your choice to create your video. Then you can see the finished video on our website!

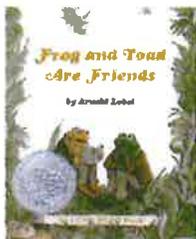

Movie Showing: The Peanuts Movie (Rated G): Apr. 14, 2PM

Enjoy your spring break with a movie at the library! Join us for a free viewing of The peanuts Movie. No registration required, and all ages are welcome. Children under age 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Preschool Story-Craft: Apr. 16, 2PM

Kids aged 3-5, please join us for this delicious tale of problem solving and sharing. We will read Little Mouse and the Big Cupcake, and also make a yummy craft. Please call to reserve your child's spot.

Book Busters: Apr. 23, 2PM

Calling all early readers! Please join us for this exciting book discussion of Frog and Toad are Friends, by Arnold Lobel. Check out the book at the library to read at home, then come and participate in the discussion at the book group. We will also have a coordinating craft project! Registration is required, and the program is limited to independent readers.

A High School Nutmeg Round-Up: Apr. 27, 6PM

The 2016 CT Nutmeg season is drawing to a close. High School students can join us as we talk about what we did and didn't like about the High School and Teen Nutmeg Award nominees before we vote for our favorite on April 30. Come help us usher these titles out over cake, coffee and conversation.
