

Lunch and Learn - "Almost Lost, Nearly Found" by Nancy Hammerslough

Wednesday, June 8 12:00 - 1:30 PM

Nancy Hammerslough, a long time resident of Weston, will discuss and sign copies of her novel "Almost Lost, Nearly Found". In this story about a small Midwest town at the end of World War II, the Rubison girls are governed by the strict unwritten rules of their time and place, although Peggy, the youngest sister, steals from Victory Gardens, guiltily shoplifts her family's Christmas presents, hopes someone tall will ask her for a date, and befriends a girl whose family has escaped the Holocaust. Her pretty older sister, Janice, a popular high school Homecoming Queen, dutifully follows the rules for nice girls but has a secret life. And when she is wounded by a disastrous event that's never supposed to happen, she must keep the secret from everyone, even herself!

This talk is part of the Friends of the Weston Public Library's popular "Lunch and Learn" series. The program begins at noon and ends at 1:30. Bring your lunch and join us. The event is free but registration is requested at friendsofthewestonlibrary@gmail.com or by signing up at the library.
