

Weston LAWN ART and Talk with David Boyajian

The Weston Commission for the Arts will sponsor a slide presentation and talk featuring Lawn Art found on Weston estates ranging from notable sculpture to the ephemeral, found art and owner-created vignettes on Saturday, April 10, 8 PM at the Weston Public Library, 58 Norfield Road.

Guest speaker David Boyajian, noted sculptor in metal, wood and stone mediums will talk about his own work, some of which is installed on Weston properties.

The event is free and open to the public. No reservations are necessary. Call 222-2590 for more information.
