

Himes, Senators to Host Hearing on Norwalk Social Security Office Closure

Residents will have opportunity to testify regarding impact of office closure and question SSA officials

NORWALK, CT—Congressman Jim Himes (CT-4) and Senator Richard Blumenthal will host a public hearing on Thursday morning to provide residents currently served by the Norwalk Social Security office an opportunity to share their concerns regarding the impact of the office's slated closure. Officials from SSA will also be on hand to answer questions from concerned citizens.

WHO: Congressman Jim Himes
Senator Richard Blumenthal
Elaine C. Werner & Kathy Bass, Office of Senator Joseph Lieberman
Roberto Medina, Social Security Administration Regional Communications Director
Steve Richardson, Social Security Administration Deputy Regional Communications Director

WHAT: Hearing to gather public input on slated closure of Norwalk Social Security office

WHEN: Thursday, January 19, 2012
10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Norwalk Senior Center
11 Allen Road, Norwalk