Board of Police Commissioners

MINUTES
November 1, 2011
7:30 PM
Commission Room

Commissioners present: Rick Phillips, Beth Gralnick, Hal Shupack, Bill Brady, Peter Ottomano and Jess DiPasquale. Jeff Eglash absent

Others present: Gayle Weinstein, John Troxell, John Ojarovsky and Susan Mock

Meeting called to order at 7:30 PM

- 1) Paul Gills and Marty Berger from the Connecticut Interlocal Risk Management Agency (CIRMA). Discussion of Loss Analysis" with regards to on duty injuries within the Weston police department.

Discussion showing the direct cost of claims from the police department and some of the ways injuries could be prevented.

- 2) Subcommittee Report--Discussion of Comm Center operating hours and potential costs and recommendation of subcommittee if regionalization of Communications Center proceeds.

The subcommittee determined that there would be no cost savings to the town due to the fact that the existing communication center would need to be manned 24/7 by either a police officer or a town hall employee. The Commission decided to recommend to the Selectmen not to regionalize.

3) Review of potential new police cruisers—Bill Chezmedia

Mr. Chezmedia discussed what vehicles are available. It was decided that the best vehicle to consider would be an SUV.

4) Approval of Minutes of meeting of October 4th

Tabled to December meeting

5) Chief's Report For October, 2011

The overtime incurred by the last storm will hopefully be reimbursed by FEMA. The other item that has caused overtime is the internal investigation of the Weston School teacher.

6) Follow-up Items

None

7) Sub-Committee Reports and Assignments

a. Chief's Review Subcommittee formation

Commissioners Phillips, Gralnick and Brady will make up the subcommittee

8) Other Business

Commissioner DiPasquale would like for there to be more interaction with the police department and the schools. He would like to outline something and present at the December meeting.

At 9:55 PM Commissioner Gralnick motioned to adjourn, seconded by Commissioner Brady. All in favor.

Respectively submitted,

Ellen L. Jones
Recording Secretary
