

TICKETS ON SALE FOR HOLIDAY BREAKFAST

NOVEMBER 19, 2009 (WESTON, CT) -- Attention holiday revelers: tickets for the annual Children's Holiday Breakfast, sponsored by the Weston Women's League (WWL), are now on sale! This time-honored tradition is back and takes place on Sunday, December 6th from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. at the Weston Middle School.

The event will feature a pancake breakfast with all the trimmings and festive photo opportunities with Santa Claus and Frosty the Snowman. In addition, the Middle School gym will be home to activities galore including crafts, face painting, and an ever-popular Moon Bounce. Shoppers can also enjoy the Holiday Gift Boutique, where an array of local vendors and artisans will be showcasing their crafts and goods. "The breakfast offers something for everyone -- kids enjoy crafts and games, while parents shop and socialize. It's both a charitable event and holiday happening," said Melissa Walker, CHB Co-chair.

The kids' crafts selection has been expanded this year to include everything from decorating keychains, coin purses, and cell phone covers, to designing holiday cards, bookmarks, and foam glasses. Scratch art ornaments can be made as well as foam dreidels, stars, trees, and snowflakes. Beading activities will also be on hand as will sand and spin art, coloring, and temporary tattoos. All of these crafts can double as presents (and memorable keepsakes) for family and friends.

Adults can purchase a variety of early holiday gifts and kids can shop too, buying small gifts for parents, grandparents, teachers, and friends. This year's vendor line-up is impressive and includes Liz Waltzman's Bibliotechies Books, Kempo Karate, Silpada Designs, Weston Beadworks, Abigail Duncan's Handpainted Crafts, Suzanne Barrett Designs (jewelry), Arbonne

International 100% Botanical Cosmetics, Tricia Brown's Barefoot Books, and more. The Boutique offers a wide selection of goods sure to appeal holiday shoppers.

The net proceeds of the day will be divided between important non-profits: Kids in Crisis, Alcohol and Drug Awareness Program (ADAP), and Weston Education Foundation. Kids in Crisis will use the monies for the enhancement of their programming which assists children in emergency situations, ADAP's funds will further substance abuse awareness, and Weston Education Foundation will use the League's donation for one or more chosen grants.

The League greatly appreciates the generosity of sponsors who help make the Children's Holiday Breakfast possible. Kudos go out to sponsors, Stop and Shop, Dr. Mark Goldenberg of Brain Balance Achievement Center, Aspetuck Valley Country Club, Pepperidge Farm, Melissa and Doug (children's products company), and former WWL President, Dawn Egan. Additional thanks are extended to Peter's Market for their food contributions. "The sponsorship donations and net profits go directly to the earmarked charities. The League is truly grateful for the community's outpouring of support," said Courtney Zabicki, event Co-chair.

Tickets for the event are being sold at Camelot Realty at the Weston Center. They can also be purchased by contacting League member, Kerry Scaramuzza via kscaramuzza@gellerco.com. Family tickets are $25 in advance/$30 at the door, individual tickers are $8 in advance/$10 at the door, and admission is free for children under two.

Set aside the entire morning for the 26th Annual Children's Holiday Breakfast -- it's bound to get you into the holiday spirit! The doors open at 9:00 and breakfast will be served up until the closing at 1:00.
